

Chalazion

A quiet chalazion is a hard, painless lump in the eyelid due to chronic inflammation of an oil gland.

An acute chalazion is a painful, red lump in the eyelid due to an infection or inflammation of an oil gland.

- HEAT & Massage
- Surgery for minority
- Incision & Curretage
- Prevention is better than cure